Description

Antique 19th century Victorian carved oak centre table, a very well-made piece of fine quality, showcasing exquisite craftsmanship and elegant design. The table is beautifully carved throughout, with particular attention to the frieze, and stands on a distinctive base featuring highly detailed carvings and a turned stretcher. It is fitted with casters for ease of movement. The oak displays a gorgeous natural grain and rich colour, enhancing its decorative appeal. A highly desirable example in a practical and attractive size. Presented in good condition and ready for use, making it a perfect addition to any home.
