Description

Antique 20th century Arts and Crafts dresser in golden oak, a very well-made piece of fine quality, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and practical design. The upper section features multiple open shelves, ideal for display, while the centre offers a large worktop. The base comprises three drawers, four additional open shelves, and a single-door cupboard with a single internal shelf. All drawers retain their original decorative handles and fittings. The dresser displays a gorgeous golden oak grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting its quality construction and timeless Arts and Crafts character. A highly desirable example in good condition, offered as a single solid piece that does not come apart, perfect for both functional use and as a decorative addition to any home.
