Description

Small 18th Century English Oak Bureau A Small 18th Century English Oak Bureau. Having good proportions, this bureau has a lovely colour and patination. The original metalware consists of axe head handles on the lopers, that pull out from the sides of a bureau, and fine plate escutcheons and handles on the drawers. The piece stands on tall shaped bracket feet. The interior is nicely fitted with a series of small drawers and pigeon holes with a central cupboard door, set in to a moulded frame.
