Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian sideboard in walnut, a very well-made piece of good quality, showcasing fine craftsmanship and elegant design. The top features a raised gallery, while the centre contains two drawers and the base offering two cupboards. The left-hand cupboard includes a single internal shelf, and the right-hand cupboard provides practical bottle storage. The sideboard displays gorgeous walnut grain and rich colour throughout, with all original handles and fittings intact. Beautifully decorated and very well made, it stands on turned legs, adding to its refined appearance. A highly desirable example in great condition, combining both functionality and decorative appeal. Perfect addition to any home.
