Description

Antique 20th century small open bookcase in mahogany, a very well-made piece of good quality, showcasing elegant design. The upper section features two drawers, each retaining its original brass handles, while an adjustable open shelf below provides versatile storage or display space. Stood on a plinth base, the bookcase is beautifully inlaid with delicate satinwood stringing, enhancing its refined appearance. The mahogany displays stunning figuring and gorgeous natural grain and colour throughout. A highly desirable example in a compact and practical size, combining functionality with classic style. In good condition and ready for use, perfect addition to any home.
