Description

Antique 19th century Victorian mahogany bookcase, a beautifully made and high-quality piece, combining practicality with elegant design. The glazed upper section features two internal shelves, perfect for displaying books or collectibles, while the base has a blind-door cupboard containing four small drawers and a small shelf, offering versatile storage. A delicate raised gallery to the top adds a decorative finishing touch. Crafted with attention to detail, the bookcase stands on a solid plinth base and showcases rich mahogany grain and warm colour throughout. It separates into two sections for ease of transport and includes the original key. A rare and highly desirable example in good condition, ideal as a functional and stylish addition to any home.
