Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian sideboard in oak, a very well-made piece of fine quality, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and elegant design. The sideboard features a raised gallery to the top, with two single-door cupboards on either side, each containing a single internal shelf for practical storage. Three central drawers run down the middle, all retaining their original brass handles and fittings. The piece stands on barley twist legs with a supporting stretcher across the base, combining stability with decorative appeal. The oak displays a beautiful natural grain and rich colour throughout, enhancing the overall elegance of the design. A highly desirable example in good condition, perfect for both functional use and as a decorative addition to any home.
