Description

A lovely antique Georgian style walnut extending dining table. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1900-1920 period. It has a beautiful walnut top with stunning walnut grain patterns and cross banded edges. Each half sits on a pedestal tripod base with acanthus leaf carving at the knees. This come with two additional leaves which extends the top from a six seater to an eight seater and then to a ten seater. We have had this recently re-polished, there are some old marks and bumps that remain beneath the polish here and there. Overall this is in excellent condition for its age.
