Description

A superb Arts and Crafts period oak sideboard by Shapland and Petter of Barnstaple. Excellent construction in solid English oak, showing beautiful medullary rays and of generous proportions. Decorated with stunning stylised floral inlaid panels throughout. The top section with a central glazed door flanked by a pair of cupboard doors (all lockable, keys supplied). The glazed door is covered with an exquisite copper floral panel. The base section with a pair of drawers sitting over a pair of cupboard doors and a central recessed section and a further drawer beneath. Both cupboard doors are lockable, key supplied. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops and now offered for sale in excellent original condition with a good colour and patina. Splits into 2 sections for ease of installation. Metalware items for display purposes only and not included within the sale. Dimensions: Width 183cms Depth 61cms Overall height 192cms Height to waist 94cms The Shapland and Petter factory was established by cabinetmaker Henry Shapland (1823 – 1909), following a trip to America in 1848. While there, he saw an ingenious new machine which he realised could be used for cabinetmaking. Upon his ...
