Description

This Good Quality Continental Brass Towel Rail would make a stylish addition to any bathroom or bedroom it found itself in. The elegant swept feet then rise on round columns to the gracefully curved tops that are adorned with finely cast rosettes. The two top rails are of a fluted finish to stop the towels sliding off which is a lovely touch. The two large hoops to the outside of the piece, add further storage options. The Towel Rail is of good weight that aids stability, and the buffed finish would put a sparkle into any area placed.
