Description

A fine miniature original oil study painted on thick wooden panel depicting a table set out with main wine glass and two pewter plates showing olives and a sliced lemon. The detail is very fine and the tiny scale study bears the signature "STIEN" on the green table cloth. The study is very professionally executed. The painting has been nicely presented in a replacement wooden gold leafed frame with decorative rope design. The gold finish on the frame is in good order, despite the close-up images effecting the look. The study is in very good condition with no surface scratches or other marks.
