Description

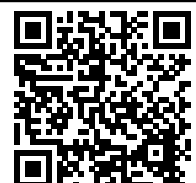

An impressive antique Victorian sterling silver and glass claret jug which has been designed in the Grecian style with a tall body, a combination of pretty etched and cut glass detailing to the body and resting on a round shaped base. The silver mount is particularly appealing and matches the design of the body perfectly well. The shaped handle is comfortable to hold and has an attractive head motif at the end. This silver claret jug would make a statement when displayed and would be perfect to use. It will hold 1.1 litres of wine and remains in excellent condition. Height: 29 cms (11.4") Diameter of body: 10 cms (3.9") It was hallmarked in London for 1877 by Walter & John Barnard. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this claret jug.
