Description

Here we have an exhibition quality pair of fine Victorian Walnut cabinets c1840. As you can see the cabinets have fantastic colour and patina. These beautiful figured Walnut cabinets are of the finest quality and reputedly once stood at Benacre Hall Suffolk. They truly are stunning and being a certain size they were undoubtedly commissioned pieces. There are figured Walnut tops with a stepped crossbanded edges. There is a remarkable and complicated ormolu band below with concave pediment and a more typical ormolu bead below that. There are beautiful gilt ormolu figureheads to the flanks and glass side panels for extra light. There is a Tulip wood band with box wood string around the door and this is also replicated to a greater degree on the sides. The single large doors retain the original glass and have the original working locks and gilt mounted key. Internally there are three shelves and the original velvet linings. There is a further complicated ormolu moulding to the top of the plinth base and additional ormolu mounts to the plinth. These breathtaking cabinets are in wonderful retail condition ready for your home. The dimensions are approx 108 cm wide 33 cm deep 145 cm...
