Description

A finely detailed hand carved 1870s Victorian oak armchair of unusual dimensions with cane seating. Originals of this type would date back to around the 1670s. I have carried out light repairs securing several loose joints on the lower part of the chair as well as giving several good waxes. The result is very pleasing chair which now has a lovely warm glow. The chair is in excellent antique used condition I hope this shows up in the images. The chair is solid. H93cm W61cm D41.5cm Seat height 41.5cm.
