Description

A large pine larder cupboard dating to the late Victorian period. The cupboard is in a washed down pink paint giving it a fabulous and unique look against its stripped pine interior. The cupboard has three fixed shelves with large double doors with all original iron hinges, it has a cornice and flat top and sits on plinth and squared feet. The cupboard is in very good condition with some age related wear, a small amount of inactive historic worm holes. Due to the weight of the doors when open we would advise you to attach to the wall to stop falling forward.
