Description

Title: Enthroned Madonna with Christ Child and Musical Putti Date: c. early 20th century (artist born 1880, active in Munich; died 1948 in Oelde) Origin: Munich, Germany Description: A finely crafted sculptural group depicting the Madonna enthroned with the Christ Child seated on her lap, accompanied at her feet by two charming musical putti. Executed in light-colored earthenware and finished with delicate polychrome painting, the piece reflects the refined academic tradition associated with the Munich Academy of Fine Arts. The composition is balanced and serene, with careful attention to drapery, facial expression, and ornamental detail. The presence of the putti adds a lyrical, devotional character, enhancing its appeal as both a religious and decorative object. Marks: Impressed signature: Georg Kemper, sculptor, Munich Original adhesive label on the reverse of the base Impressed workshop mark Condition: Very good overall condition with no damage Dimensions: Height: 54.5 cm Additional Notes: A substantial and elegant example of early 20th-century German devotional sculpture, suitable for collectors of religious art, Munich School works, or finely modeled ceramic ...
