Description

1930s half hunter pocket watch, Folkestone Fishermen The watch has a Swiss stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed Everite, a brand name used by H Samuel jewellers. It is all protected by an inner hinged cover which has an inscription, 'Presented to S E Elliott as a small token of appreciation from Officers and Members of The Folkestone Fishermen's Society, 28 Feb 1935'. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is the gold plated Star model from the Birmingham watch case maker Aaron Dennison. He was a prolific manufacturer and supplied various watch factories. The case is in lovely condition, just a little wear to the plate around the hinges, but nothing too detrimental at all. The back of the watch has Mr Elliott's monogrammed initials. The winding crown pushes in to release the front cover. Inside, there is an acrylic lens which is in lovely condition. The signed dial is in very nice condition with original blued steel hands, including the special half hunter hour hand so that the time can be read when the front cover is closed. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
