Description

A striking Art Deco walnut wardrobe featuring beautifully figured burl walnut veneers with symmetrical book-matched patterns across the three-door façade. The light honey tones and bold grain create a highly decorative and timeless appearance, characteristic of the Art Deco period. The wardrobe comes in three sections for easier transport and installation. It has bakelite handles, adding authentic period charm. Inside, the layout is both practical and versatile: the double section includes a hanging rail with a shelf above and a mirror fitted to the inside of the door, while the right-hand section offers a combination of drawers and sliding shelves for organised storage. A discreet secret drawer is cleverly concealed at the top, providing an additional unique feature. A stylish and functional piece, in good condition.
