Description

A late 18th century mahogany tea caddy with very pretty oval inlaid details to the top and front, with boxwood stringing to the corners. The mahogany has a lovely rippled effect and contrasts well with the inlays... Condition: I think there would have been a handle to the centre of the lid originally - there are marks consistent with what a drop type handle would leave behind, and a small central hole to the inlay. The internal lids are missing. Some minor surface wear but in good condition overall. Dimensions: Width - 18.5cm Depth - 11.2cm Height - 12cm Free UK delivery - the item will be sent using a tracked and signed for service.
