Description

A late 19th century oak side table made in the 18th century style, with turned barley twist legs, moulded stretchers and a rectangular top with moulded edge detail. The table is finished all round with a nicely shaped apron to all sides, so could be used as a centre table if desired. Condition: The top isn't attached to the base with the original blocks and appears to have been glued in place, otherwise very good condition with a few minor marks to the surface in accordance with age and use. Dimensions: Width - 106cm Depth - 61cm Height - 77.5cm Mainland UK delivery (excluding the Scottish highlands) is included in the price - if you would like a quote for delivery elsewhere, or if you would like to collect the item yourself, please get in touch. Delivery of furniture usually takes between 7 and 21 days from order, though can sometimes take longer. If you need an item by a certain date please speak to us prior to ordering and we'll try to help.
