Description

A lovely farmhouse table dating from the late 19th Century. It has a planked pine top with a smooth waxed finish. It stands on turned legs with two large drawers in one side with turned knobs. The base of the table has a wonderful red oxide painted finish and the whole table has a lovely patina. It is a good size, big enough to seat 6-8. The leg room below the drawers is 22 1/2" / 57cm but the other sides have better clearance of 23 1/2" / 59.5cm. The top can be removed for transport and is held in place on blocks and screws. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are various signs of age and use and some old marks and knocks on the top surface but nothing untoward or detrimental. The drawers are generally clean and tidy and open smoothly. There are some signs of old woodworm in the legs which has been treated as a precaution. The table has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
