Description

This is a rare Antique French king wood, marquetry inlaid and ormolu-mounted Bonheur du Jour, or Ladies Writing Desk, Circa 1850 in date. It features cut brass and purple heart inlaid decoration, making it a perfect example of quality and design. The desk features a pair of glazed doors, which open to a central shelf and an interior that has been lined in a sumptuous burgundy damask. This is above a bombe-shaped fall front which opens to reveal an inset gold-tooled green leather writing surface with three spacious drawers. There are two sections that slide back and provide access to a hidden well. The desk is mounted on elegant, swept cabriole legs, and it is complete with its original locks and keys. Condition: In really excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 138 cm x Width 88 cm x Depth 55 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 4 foot, 6 inches x Width 2 foot, 11 inches x Depth 1 foot, 10 inches. King wood is a classic furniture wood, almost exclusively used for inlays on very fine furniture. Occasionally, it is used in the solid for small items and turned...
