Description

This 19thC Two Drawer Mahogany Bow Front Side Table is very well drawn and refined. Standing on crisply turned legs, with a generous bow to the front, this table combines both elegance and style. The finely grained Mahogany used throughout, has a lovely rich hue to it, and the table is of a good weight. The two smooth running Oak lined drawers add further storage space, and the top of the table is of a good useable size. With a generous knee height clearance of 24½ inches, this table could easily be used as a writing table. A particularly good quality piece of 19thC furniture, ready to grace many areas of your home. Presented in fully restored condition.
