Description

A substantial Victorian mahogany console table, the long, solid D-end top featuring a continuous reeded edge, set over a deep frieze and raised on three beautiful turned and fluted legs terminating in striking lobed feet. A well-proportioned console of good length and narrow depth, with a fully finished back allowing it to sit comfortably in a hall, behind a sofa or as a freestanding piece within a room. Very good antique condition with some surface wear consistent with age, including very minor veneer losses to the frieze and some historical deeper marks to the top. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1870. Dimensions Height: 72.5 cm Width: 183 cm Depth: 70.5 cm Height to Underside of Table: 63 cm
