Description

Pair of 19th Century Italian Mahogany Console Tables A Pair of 19th Century Italian Mahogany Console Tables with Marble Tops. These stylish console tables are examples of great attention to detail evident in the way that they have been designed and made. The marble tops have outset corners and moulded to conform to the shape of the bases. The aprons of the tables are reeded with fluted blocks. The legs are joined by concave platform stretchers. The timber used is high quality throughout with a fine colour and patination. H 102cm x W 117cm x D 57cm H 40¼" x W 46" x D 22½" (#4000)
