Description

A late 19th century fine quality Grand Tour Classical bronze of 'The Dancing Faun', after the antique with a beautiful rich patina, stamped 'Duchemin'. 'The Dancing Faun' with typical faunlike features of his small horns and small goat's tail is depicted standing next to a tree stump playing his music, his head bent forward holding cymbals in each hand, his right foot resting on a kroupezion attached to his sandal, this was a metal plate making a noise similar to a tap shoe, all supported on circular base signed 'Duchemin' - Issak Duchemin was a 19th century Belgian sculptor. This bronze is after the original ancient Roman marble figure by Massimiliano Soldani (Italian, 1656-1740) in the Tribuna gallery in the Uffizi, Florence dating from the 17th century. This bronze figure is in excellent original condition for age and can go straight into a home or collection. Size: Height: 22.75" / 58cm Width: 9.5" / 24cm Depth: 7.5" / 19cm
