Description

This rare Antique Mizpah Ring features the word 'MIZPAH', which has been designed with raised lettering on a finely fluted band. Mizpah is a Hebrew word that means 'watchtower' and is interpreted as 'May God watch over you.' Mizpah jewellery is worn as a token of love or friendship and first became popular during the Victorian era. The inside of the band is stamped with a full set of British hallmarks for 18ct gold, Chester 1887, with the maker's mark B.H.J, which adds to the ring's authenticity, value and charm. METAL 18ct Yellow Gold RING SIZE UK - O / US - 7.25 WEIGHT 3.2 grams HALLMARKS B.H.J, Crown, 18 Chester, d (1887) MEASUREMENTS Measures 6.78mm and tapers around to 4.15mm at the back CONDITION This MIZPAH ring is not just an antique but a testament to the craftsmanship of its time. The gold is vibrant and lustrous, with the lettering and hallmarks impeccably preserved, as is the intricate gold pattern around the band. Considering its age, this ring is in outstanding condition, making it a prized addition to any antique jewellery collection. Item Number - 11067
