Description

WW2 Omega military pocket watch, 1943. The watch has a 15-jewel stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed with the Omega name, and it has the serial number 9,959,355 which dates it back to 1943. The watch measures 52mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is white metal, probably nickel, and it is in good condition with just general light surface marks. The back of the watch has the GSTP (General Service Time Piece) mark together with the military arrow and store code. The acrylic lens is in lovely condition. The signed dial is in very nice condition... the original radium paint has been removed from the hands and numbers. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
