Description

Beautiful arts & crafts enamel flowers & moonstone set brooch This beautiful brooch is set with five oval cabochon moonstones, the one in the centre being slightly larger. They are collet set with open backs and have a lovely blue shimmer to them. In between the moonstones are very pretty blue enamel flowers with green leaves & blue dots. There are no legible markings however, the style indicates it could be by Bernard Instone. A really stunning piece, in good antique condition with some light wear & minor chipping to the enamel.
