Description

A small 18th century silver octagonal box. Makers mark of IC within a lozenge to the inside of the lid. The outside is engraved with details of 5 marriages. I have researched the names and the dates and have found information on 4 of those recorded. All have a family connection and the details were found in the Irish Quaker records. I must stress to any buyer or potential buyer that this is just my investigation on the net and urge you to carry out your own. H 3.5 cm W 2.5 cm
