Description

A well presented 19th century antique oak lambing chair. The chair features a high winged back and enclosed sides, traditionally designed to offer warmth and shelter, particularly in farmhouse settings. The solid oak frame displays good colour and grain throughout, with a deep, rich patina developed over time. The seat retains its woven base, with a loose cushion for added comfort. Raised on shaped rockers, allowing for a gentle rocking motion. A wonderful and characterful piece of country furniture, both practical and highly decorative. Item Reference: M-6790 . Dimensions: Height – 113cm / Width – 65cm / Depth – 81cm / Seat Height - 53cm with cushion / 41cm without cushion . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear including age-related marks, knocks and scratches consistent with use. The woven seat shows some wear in places. There may be historic repairs and general signs of age as expected with a piece of this period. The chair remains structurally solid and sound. Overall, a charming and increasingly sought-after example. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our ...
