Description

Good quality Edwardian walnut roll top desk c.1910. Lift the tamboured roll to reveal a good sized workspace (desk top height 30") and a superb fitted interior of 11 small drawers with the original brass label holder handles, plus pigeon holes, two slim stationery drawers and sliding pen trays. On drawer pedestals, each with a writing slide in the top. Note the lower drawer on the right hand pedestal is double height. Single drawer at the centre over a good sized kneehole (width 26½", height 25"). Solid walnut raised and fielded panels to the sides and rear, polished on all sides. Raised on the original metal castors. Typical old wear to the finish. Otherwise very good colour and condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Desk key supplied. Top can be removed and the base disassembled for delivery. Width: 60" (152.5 cm) Height: 50" (127 cm) Depth: 34" (86.5 cm)

Internal Ref: 38395
