Description

Rare Victorian cast iron ornate child's swing, circa 1860. It is in great original condition, with lovely old floral cover which is slightly worn with age related wear. With today's health and safety regulations we cannot offer it as a swing fit for purpose as it comes with no straps, belts or restraining equipment! It is a gorgeous decorative item and a great piece of history. We have no provenance with it but can only imagine that it may have been made for the nursery of a grand house. Seat size Width 31cm x Depth 27cm.
