Item Reference: SA1208165

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A 19th-century continental sideboard in richly figured curl mahogany, featuring a pair of concave panelled doors that open smoothly with a working original key. Above sit two full-width drawers, each retaining their period brass knobs, adding a refined symmetry to the piece. The mahogany shows a deep, warm glow with lively grain movement across the curved front, giving the cabinet real presence. Standing on shaped feet and crafted with that unmistakable 19th-century continental elegance, it offers both decorative impact and practical storage. Height 84cms x Width 73cms x Depth 44cms.
