Description

Here's a very attractive small antique pine wardrobe, dating from around the 1920s. It features beautifully carved panelled doors and a single drawer at the bottom, adding both character and practicality. The wardrobe stands on bun feet at the front with square block feet at the back, which is typical of the period. It was originally painted and has since been stripped back to bare wood, leaving a clean and natural finish. It is in great condition for its age. The bottom drawer is fitted with brass drop handles and slides smoothly. The doors have working locks and catches, and overall there is very little needing attention. Inside, it is currently empty, but a new brass hanging rail can be fitted if required. With an internal depth of 19", it offers good hanging space — suitable for coats and bulkier garments. Please note: this wardrobe does not dismantle for delivery, so access should be checked carefully if it needs to go upstairs. Code: K4404D Price: £720 as it is, or £797 if you'd like it waxed. Dimensions: Height 72", width 44" (widest point), depth 24" (at top), internal depth 19". Height 183 cm, width 112 cm, depth 61 cm, internal depth 48 cm.
