Description

This exquisite French Louis XVI-style parquetry inlaid table, or gueridon, dates from circa 1890s and embodies the elegance typical of Françoise Linke's craftsmanship. The round tabletop features intricate parquetry, showcasing a harmonious blend of wood tones. Adorned with classical gilded ormolu mounts, the table's apron is elegantly embellished with detailed motifs, including cherubs and floral garlands, enhancing its opulence. A convenient shelf beneath offers both functionality and aesthetic appeal, while the slender, tapered legs add to its refined silhouette. This piece is a stunning representation of French artistry, perfect for elevating any interior space with sophistication and charm. ??????Batch 86 63781 ANKZ
