Description

This is a fabulous antique English silver-plated and engraved glass table centre comport, dated with the registration lozenge for 10th September 1854. The circular saucer-shaped glass bowl is superbly etched with fruiting wine within leaf-shaped reserves and has a deep star cut base. The pedestal is centred by a spherical knop which is chased and engraved with a band of flowerheads, the base is cast with a downswept band of acanthus leaves above outswept trefoil-capped scroll feet cast with anthemions, lozenge and dogtooth bands. It is a lovely piece which will look beautiful on your dining table. Condition: In excellent condition, with no chips, cracks or repairs, please see photos for confirmation.
