Description

A charming antique 20th century Art Deco style bureau in oak, very well made and of fine quality, displaying attractive craftsmanship throughout. The upper section features a nicely fitted interior, providing a practical and well-arranged writing space. Below are two drawers with original wooden handles, adding to its authenticity and simple period character. The bureau stands on elegant tapered legs, giving it a clean and balanced Art Deco influence. The oak displays a beautiful grain and rich colour throughout, enhancing its overall presence and appeal. Presented in great condition, this is a very desirable example with a nice size, making it a perfect addition to any home.
