Description

A charming antique 20th century Georgian style sideboard in mahogany, very well made and of fine quality, displaying excellent craftsmanship throughout. The piece features an elegant bowfront design, adding a refined and classical presence. It has five drawers in total, arranged as two on either side with a large central drawer, all fitted with highly detailed brass lion handles that enhance its decorative appeal. The sideboard stands on tapered legs, giving it a balanced and graceful appearance. The mahogany displays a gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, contributing to its warm and sophisticated look. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable example of good size, making it a perfect addition to any home.
