Description

A very rare early 19th Century Regency giltwood compartmental mirror of long and narrow proportions. This stunning piece is of exceptional quality with three mirror glass plates set within a finely hand carved moulded and fluted giltwood frame. Surmounted with an inverse breakfront pediment above a deep panelled frieze with beautifully simple spiral twisted columnar detailing flanked with applied flowerhead paterae to the each of the side raised panels with a further matching pair of elegant spiral twisted columnar supports flanking each side of the frame below. The three compartmental mirror glass plates of rectangular form are set within fabulous reeded ebonised borders, supported on shaped and fluted platform base.
