Description

A superb antique 20th century fine quality Welsh dresser in oak, very well made and of the finest quality, displaying exceptional craftsmanship throughout. The upper section features two open shelves, ideal for display, while the centre has two drawers above a double door cupboard to the base with a single internal shelf, offering practical storage and functionality. This is a gorgeous example, richly decorated with highly detailed satinwood and ebony inlay throughout, which adds striking contrast and refinement to the piece. The drawer fronts and cupboard doors are beautifully carved with high attention to detail, enhancing its decorative appeal. It retains all its original handles and fittings, further adding to its authenticity. The oak displays a lovely grain and warm colour throughout, giving the dresser a rich and attractive appearance. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable piece that truly has to be seen in person to be fully appreciated. Please note the piece comes as one and does not come apart.
