Description

A good quality and generously proportioned early 20th century mahogany pedestal desk, dating to circa 1920. The rectangular top retains its original dark green tooled leather writing surface, showing a pleasing aged patina. The desk is fitted with a full arrangement of nine drawers, all with original brass swan-neck handles. The piece is finished all round (back polished), allowing it to stand freely in the centre of a room, making it ideal for both practical use and display. Knee-hole Height 59 cm Raised on traditional pedestal bases with shaped plinth feet, the desk offers excellent storage and a strong, classic presence.

Internal Ref: C2839
