Description

A charming antique 20th century figured walnut bureau, beautifully made and full of character, with a wonderfully fitted interior to the upper section providing a practical and attractive writing space. Below are three drawers, all retaining their original brass handles and fittings, adding to the authenticity and appeal of the piece. The bureau stands on turned legs, giving it an elegant and refined appearance. The walnut displays gorgeous grain and striking figuring throughout, complemented by a stunning rich colour that enhances its overall presence. Presented in good condition, this is a very nice and desirable example with a compact size, making it a perfect addition to any home, whether placed in a study, living room or bedroom.
