Description

An exceptional Victorian partners desk of generous proportions, crafted in richly figured mahogany of outstanding quality. The front is fitted with an arrangement of nine finely constructed, mahogany-lined drawers, each retaining its original brass ring pull handles, all demonstrating superb craftsmanship and attention to detail. The reverse is equally well appointed, featuring cupboards, allowing the desk to stand freely within a room—perfectly suited to both traditional and contemporary interiors. The top is inset with a hand-finished leather writing surface (later replacement), exquisitely decorated with gilt and blind tooling, providing a refined and practical workspace while complementing the desk's overall elegance. A distinguished and highly functional piece, embodying the sophistication and enduring appeal of Victorian furniture design. Presented in good condition. Size: Height 29 1/2" (75cm) Width 59" (150cm) Depth 26" (66cm) Knee hole 24" (61cm)
