

SA1208982

Three 19th Century Staffordshire Pottery Spill Vases in the form of Deers

Price

GBP 155

| USD $209 | EUR 181

Item Reference: SA1208982Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

Three handsome Staffordshire Pottery Spill Vases, modelled as deers. One vase with a hunting dog (slight blemish to the moulding on the haunch as shown and a firing crack to the rear of the deer as shown); two vases of a deer with a faun (no blemishes except slight paint loss to the smaller deer and slight crackle to the larger model). No breaks or signs of restoration. Tallest deer 31cms Middle deer 30 cms Smallest deer 23 cms

Seller Details

Gertrude Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom

Tel: 07786 022 538

International Tel: +44 7786 022 538

