Description

A charming 18th-century elm country chair, full of rustic character and traditional appeal. Featuring a classic spindle back with elegantly turned supports, the chair retains its original proportions and simple, honest design. The rush seat is well-woven and in good condition, complementing the warm tones and natural grain of the elm frame. Raised on sturdy legs united by stretchers. A delightful example of country furniture, perfect for adding character to any interior. W 45cm (17.75") D 36cm (14.25") H 84.5cm (33.25") Seat H 45.5cm (18")
