Description

An Impressive Victorian Walnut and Marquetry Centre Table. Of outstanding scale and decorative appeal, this impressive Victorian centre table is executed in richly figured walnut and raised upon an elegant quadrafoil base. The base is formed with shaped and carved legs issuing from a turned and finely carved central column, demonstrating confident craftsmanship and strong visual presence. The circular top is profusely inlaid with intricate floral marquetry panels, the central reserve adorned with an elaborate composition of flowers, laurel swags, and scrolling ornament, creating a striking focal point of exceptional detail and colour. Both functional and highly decorative, the table is of generous proportions and comfortably seats up to eight, making it equally suited to use as a centre or dining table. Presented in Good Condition. Size: Height 31" (79cm) Width 63" (160cm) Depth 63" (160cm)
