Description

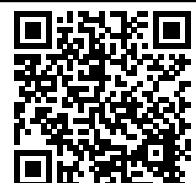

A Good Quality Georgian Revival Mahogany Server. Of impressive breakfront form and fine craftsmanship, this Georgian Revival mahogany server is raised upon boldly carved and shaped front legs, with plainer rear supports terminating in block feet, providing both strength and visual balance. The frieze is fitted with three oak-lined drawers, each decorated with lunette carving and retaining original brass plate handles, complemented by finely carved mouldings. The top is of particularly attractive figured mahogany, displaying rich colour and well-defined grain. Notably, the locks are stamped by Hobbs & Co. of London, a respected maker, adding an additional point of interest and authenticity. A handsome and practical piece, well suited to use as a serving table or sideboard within a traditional interior. Presented in Good Condition.
