Description

Charles Haigh Wood British, (1854-1927) The Letter Oil on canvas, signed Image size: 17.25 inches x 23.25 inches Size including frame: 25.5 inches x 31.5 inches A lovely historical genre painting by Charles Haigh Wood of two women in a country house interior. A young woman in Regency dress can be seen seated in front of an embroidery stand in an elegant morning room. She is posed half turned towards another woman who is shown seated beside her wearing a bonnet and holding a letter in her hand. Behind the women, an open window offers a glimpse of a spring garden with a woodland beyond. Charles Haigh Wood was a genre painter born in Bury, Manchester on 9 May, 1854 to Charles Wood, and his wife Mary (née Haigh). His father was a carver and gilder and ran a business from their home at 22 Fleet Street, Bury. Wood attended Bury Grammar school and after showing an early talent for painting enrolled at Manchester School of Art, where he won a bronze medal. At the age of 17, he left Bury to study at the Royal Academy of Art in London. A year later in 1874 he began exhibiting at the Royal Society of British Artists and in 1879 made his debut at the Royal Academy. Although he f...
