Description

This is a beautiful antique English George III sterling silver tureen and lid, with hallmarks for London 1808 and the maker's mark WB for William Bennett. The tureen is beautiful in its simplicity. There is an engraved crest and a fabulous coat of arms, which I have had researched: The Marital Arms of Families of Birchall and Hayne. The arms as engraved upon this George III English Sterling Silver Tureen by William Bennett, hallmarked London 1808, are those of Birchall impaling Hayne. These armorial bearings denote the marshalling of a marital coat showing on the dexter (the heraldic right on the left as you view the piece) the arms of the husband and on the sinister (the heraldic left on the right as you view it) the arms of the wife. These armorial bearings may be blazoned as follows:
 Arms: (on the dexter) Argent on a chevron between three cross crosslets fitchy sable as many fleurs de lis of the first (for Birchall) (on the sinister) Or on a fess gules three bezants in chief a greyhound courant proper (for Hayne) Crest: A lion rampant azure supporting a tree vert (for Birchall)
